

VIRGINIA'S EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

FEBRUARY 22, 2009 - VIRGINIA BEACH CONVENTION CENTER

Be sure to mark your calendars for February 22, 2009 when the Virginia Society for Technology in Education (VSTE) provides just for Virginia's Educational Technology Leaders, a one day institute. What makes this a win-win is that the institute occurs at the beginning of the world famous VSTE Annual State Technology Conference. This means that you can elect to stay for the entire VSTE Conference, maximizing your attendance with two major events in one location at one time.

The Agenda includes a morning opening session, three breakout sessions, a luncheon keynote presentation, plus access to the VSTE Annual State Conference Opening Session and Keynote presentation. Registration for the institute includes breakfast, lunch, snacks, sessions, materials, materials, networking, and great learning.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Who is the Institute for? It is for those persons providing leadership in the area of educational technology planning and implementation. Regardless of your job title, if you provide district level, central office type technology integration, planning and/or technical services, then you'll want to attend the Institute.

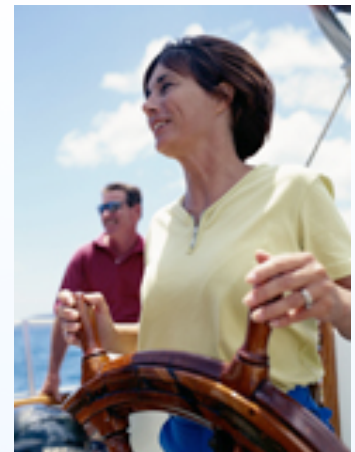

Where will the Institute be held? It will be held at the Virginia Beach Convention Center.

When is the Institute? Sunday, February 22, 2009 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The Institute is at the beginning of the VSTE Conference, which runs through February 24th.

How much will the Institute cost? The registration fee for the Institute is $100. Register for the Institute AND the VSTE Conference, and receive a special discount for the conference portion $225. Registration is now open.

What about Lodging? A block of rooms has been set aside at the Hilton Oceanfront Virginia Beach for Saturday night. The cost of these rooms is the same as during the VSTE Conference. Be sure to identify yourself as a member of the VSTE block.

What do I do now? Start planning for this great Educational Technology Leadership event. Maximize your investment and identify a team of people to attend. Mark your calendars.
