

Join us for the
Brainstorm 2013: Building the Digital Future Conference at James Madison University!

When: 8:30am - 3:30pm, Saturday, March 23, 2013
Where: ISAT/CS building, 701 Carrier Drive, Harrisonburg, VA
Parking: Across the street from the building on Carrier Drive

Our keynote speaker this year is Lan Neugent, SETDA member and Assistant Superintendent for Technology, Career & Adult Education, Virginia Department of Education, who will discuss a shift to ebooks and answer your questions about this very important topic.

Exciting, 2-hour hands-on workshops address augmented reality, visual literacy, app creation, and video on mobile devices. Interactive, 1-hour presentation topics include: GIS, Hyperstudio 5, NETS*T certification, iBooks Author, flipping the classroom, QR codes, tools for media creation, and My Big Campus.

And don't miss the Big Blue Botics Ultimate Ascent: The Frisbee Throwing Machine! and "Sampsonator" the Basketball Throwing Robot!
